

Chris Hays joined the Department of Criminal Justice Training on October 1, 2012 as a Law Enforcement Training Instructor I in the Basic Telecommunications Section. Hays previously served Kentucky State Police as Telecommunications Supervisor. Hays, who has a baccalaureate degree from Morehead State University, is an 11-year veteran of public safety dispatch having started his career as a Telecommunicator with Jackson Police Department before moving on to the Kentucky State Police.

Monica Pattison joined the Department of Criminal Justice Training on January 1, 2013 as an instructor in the Advanced Telecommunications Section. Mrs. Pattison previously served 7 years as a dispatcher at the Lexington Division of Police and obtained her Bachelor of Science degree in Police Studies from Eastern Kentucky University in May of 2007.

Brandon Combs joined the Department of Criminal Justice Training on March 1, 2013 as a Law Enforcement Training Instructor in the Basic Telecommunications Section. Combs previously served as the Communications Supervisor for the University of Kentucky Police Department. He currently is pursuing his Doctorate of Education in Instructional Design at Morehead State University, and holds a Master of Science in Emergency Management from ECU.